In Some Places You Can Be A Source Of Hope.

For an immigrant who doesn't understand English, America can be a frightening and often lonely place. International Orthodox Christian Charities (IOCC) is working in the United States to help you help people succeed in your community. By volunteering through a local charity or through an IOCC-sponsored English-as-Second-Language (ESL) course in your parish, you can protect people from poverty and help them realize their dreams! Through IOCC's U.S. Program your acts of charity can make a difference.
