REMEMBER IOCC FOR THANKSGIVING

As Orthodox Christians, we pray "for favorable weather, an abundance of the fruits of the earth, and temperate seasons." But for many people around the world — especially those affected by natural disasters, drought and famine — a simple meal is an answer to their prayers. Live your faith this Thanksgiving by supporting IOCC's relief and self-help programs throughout the world.

A Second Miracle at Christmas

Every Christmas, believers in Jesus Christ celebrate the miracle of God's birth from a Virgin. But God asks His people to make another miracle happen: giving to those who might not otherwise have a reason to celebrate this holiday season. By supporting International Orthodox Christian Charities (IOCC), the love of Christ is made tangible through emergency aid and development programs that provide true hope and self-sufficiency. Be the second miracle this Christmas. Give to IOCC.

Give a Gift of Love This Christmas

As your family prepares for the Feast of the Nativity, please remember your brothers and sisters in need. Your support of IOCC brings life-sustaining programs to children and families suffering from war, poverty, disease, man-made and natural disasters. May you and yours enjoy the true nature of the Christmas feast this year. Please share it with others by supporting the work of IOCC.

Help Others Live While You Earn a Living

When you support IOCC through a workplace giving campaign, you're helping to rebuild schools for children, restore water and other utilities for villages damaged by war and disaster, and provide jobs and job training for mothers in areas of high unemployment. For just pennies a day, your pledge to IOCC through the Combined Federal Campaign or United Way can make a real difference for children and families affected by poverty, war and natural disasters.
